BERLIN, April 6 .- Though the occupation of Frankfort, Darmstadt and Henau was predicted by the French Press it came as a surprise here. The litterness was very great among the people as well as in government circles when the news arrived.

All newspapers now raise the question whether the high council has approved the occupation of the cities and it is not thought unlikely that England may have given tacit consent in return for some concessions made by France in Asia Minor.

Large Vote Is Cast.

An enormous vote was cast in the ten wards, exceeding by many thou-sands the official forceasts of the election authorities. The totals show an aggregate of 79,278 men's votes and of 31,874 women's votes, or a total of 111.152. In each ward the women voted almost in the same direct proportion as the men, and the winning candidates had a majority of both men and women voters. There were no finishes, the lowest majority being 1,023 for Haderlein in the Twentybourth ward, and the highest being that of Caspers in the Twenty-sixth, 4,791. Robert J. Mulcahy, bitterly fought by the M. V. L., came back in the Fifth ward with a majority of 1,118 over Thomas A. Doyle. Doyle is a former alderman and now in the legin the ward was 12,622, and the total vote for mayor in 1919 was 14,720.

Second Election Needed. The election in the Eleventh was the preliminary, where a candidate had to receive a majority of all votes cast to earn his council seat. Two Demo-crats were the high men, who now go to a supplementary election during the first week in May. John C. Kruse, backed by the Sullivan organization, and Dennis A. Horan, allied with the Hearst-Harrison wing, were the two leaders, with nine starters. Ald. Herman Krumdick who was not a candidate in February, to succeed sought Ald. Cullerton's place, after the latter's death. He was indo the M. V. L. and ran fifth.

 THE COUNCIL ORGANIZATION

Defeat of five sitting alderman at yesterday's election will have little effect on the organization of the new city council by the steering committee selected March 26 at an aldermanic caucus called by the Municipal Voters eague.
Through the defeat of Ald. Novak Pretzel, and Walker, the council majority of forty which signed up to support the steering committee's commit tee slate is cut to thirty-seven, but Ald. Richert and Link, who did not attend the M. V. L. caucus, are expected to support the committee list on the council floor, making at least thirty-nine votes for the slate—three more than a majority. One Chairmanship Vacant. As a result of both aldermanic elections—yesterday's and the one held Feb. 24—there is only one vacancy among the eighteen council chairmanships. Ald. Watson, who was chair is said to have tarried in sev

AYOR THOMPSON was elate by the results of yesterday's aldermanic elections. After receiving the returns for an hour in his office last night he issued the following statement.

tion today should be a warning to men holding office that they are the servants of the people and derive their power through the consent of the governed and not through invisible government controlled by the Municipal Voters' league.
"I hope this election will be a warning to the members of the city council who accept the dictation of invisible government, and that the men who have courage to stand for their people alone will be strengthened in their de-sire to organize the next city council as the law provides and not in violation of the same, as dictated by Municipal Voters' league."

CHANGE IN WOOD MANAGEMENT IS BELIEVED NEAR

Illinois Vote Awaited Before Shift Is Made.

Unless Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood carries Illinois next Tuesday over Gov. Lowden it is the one best bet along Presidential row at the Congress that there will be a spring housecleaning at the Wood headquarters.

The Michigan result nearly put a gilt edged cinch on the proposition. That the vote in Michigan was a disaster to the Wood plan of campaign was admitted by men who are on the inside of the further prosecution of the plans to capture the presidential nomination for Gen. Wood. That there is to be a radical change in policy is all but publicly admitted.

We come into waters where we are almost within signaling distance of pirate craft. We beenp into opium smugglers. We find ships that have eyes in their prows. We find little harbor boards, with sails made of rattan natting and bamboo ribs, owned and operated exclusively by women and . There are babies in abundance and the open decks of careening sampans are their nurseries. There are pictures of sordid misery shifting to visions of surpassing, breath arresting beauty. There are many elements of interest along the China coast that someho we missed in the geographies and travel books. Although life is real and le is earnest, life is an illustrated story book-on the road to Yunnan-Fu A Hongkong newspaper announced the arrival of our good 1,500 ton ship, the Sunning, with the laconic comment that the boat brought from Shanghai a general cargo. Concerning a Featured Group in This Selling of

Women's and Misses' Spring Suits Specially Priced at $85

The opportunity that is presented through this really unusual selling is indeed meeting with enthusiastic response on the part of women and misses.

For here they are finding the best of the new springtime fashions, in all their varied phases, at pricings that are decidedly moderate.

There's Exclusiveness, Too, for There Are Many Styles to Choose, but Not Many of Any One Style

Fabrics are of excellent quality—the sort that have made suits from these sections so much sought. The fineness of workmanship shows in such details as arrowheads, folds-snug shoulders, smart collar lines.

In Fabrics One May Choose-

Poiret twills, gabardines, tricotines, all in the varied shades of navy blue. And some colorful checked fabrics and some of the mannish-looking mixtures.

The Style Details Are Distinctive—

As to suit coats—these may be severely tailored, or semi-tailored in line. One notes embroideries, stitching, cleverly placed pockets and belts.

The Suit Sketched at the Left Is From the Women's Groups-$85. The Suit Sketched at the Right Is From the Misses' Groups-$85.

MR. HOOVER'S INTERNATIONALISM.

In quoting Who's Who to make clear the inter nationalism of Herbert Hoover as grounds for some loubt as to his merits as a presidential candidate THE TRIBUNE used the 1918-'19 edition of that work After citing more than twenty years of foreign residence, it listed his clubs as "Pacific Union, Bohemian (San Francisco); Burlingame (Cal.); University, Metropolitan, Lawyers', Bankers' (New York); tetropolitan, Cosmos, Chevy Chase (Weshington)," and gave his address as United States Food Admir istration, Washington, D. C.

Reference to Who's Who of 1916-17 reveals Mr. Hoover's clubs only as "Devonshire, Albemarle, Ranelagh (London)." And the only place Mr. Hoover mentions as " Home " is " Red house. Horton street London."

In this connection it may be explained that the records of Who's Who are provided by the indi- street car passengers $25,311,000. That was for vidual named, in response to questionnaires sent out by the publishers. The change in Mr. Hoover's affiliations between 1917 and 1919, as revealed by himself for publication, is offered as supplementary to the facts already cited by THE TRIBUNE.

MISREADING MAHAN. Was it an American naval officer who made the world war?

This is not as eccentric a conundrum as i appears to be. In the perspective of time it may twineth and the turtle dove mourneth. The people confidently made by most Americans to the query it before any dirt is dug to make a subway. Who made the war?"-namely, the kaiser. Of the war. It was a resultant of forces lying deep pawnshops. "In Hock Signo Vinces" is the motto in the life of the old world. It was an unconscious of Mr. Thompson and Mr. Lundin. In this conneccollaboration of many men, from the best inten- tion, as in others, we admire their work, but, gettioned and most scrupulous to the most ruthless and the misguided, from Sir Edward Grey to Baron that the city made $1,000,000 out of the additional Aeranthal, from the Grosser Generalstab to the fare and was much obliged to get it and happy to American pacifist societies. It will take many years and much more knowledge than we now possess to apportion responsibilities in right degrees so far as individuals are concerned.

But we do not venture to enter upon that. Our conundrum interests us. In clearer terms it is this: What influence had the writings of Mahan but a vote will be forced in the senate, according on the policy which came into violent conflict in

We think a good deal. Mahan did much for the British and they recognize it. His brilliant exposihistory confirmed and fortified British opinion in really is.

of Mahan, the Germans, when they get to thinking said that there was no need to train young men about it, may be inclined to throw bricks. Mahan because the country had trained men for the presshowed the greatness of sea power. The Germans read him as well as the British and the kaiser declared "Germany's future lies upon the sea."

From that epigram, backed by a building program, sprang one of the chief motives of the future war. Germany read Mahan and said: "We its bad policy and if necessary make him do it must be supreme." English statesmanship has a again. There is a limit to the inequities in which seaman's habit. It watches the skies and the far even a republic may indulge. horizon. It saw the "irrepressible conflict" germinating from Wilhelm's epigram, and, while it did go of this policy they will show the entire country not draw all the conclusions it would have been that the opponents of it are in favor of a military wise to do, its policy shifted away from that of scheme which is more costly, wholly ineffective,

The Germans read Mahan, but they did not foresee that between the possession of the second navy and the first was a long and pertious passage To build their naval power only up to second or third rank was to waste good marks. It left them very much where they were without a navy. And to advance farther, to build, as Admiral Jellicoe now lets us know they did, within striking distance of sea supremacy, was to make war certain.

We are not tempted to dogmatize, but it seems probable that had Germany consolidated her strength on land, as Bismarck held she should, the world war might not have come, as it did come, too soon for her. With no threat at England's vital spot the British would have followed in all probability the policy of "wait find see," and Germany would have remained the greatest power in Europe. When the Germans read Mahan it encouraged them to a naval rivalry which England dared not ignore and which forced her out of her isolasound guide for the islanders. The Germans mis-

In these reflections there may be something for American pondering.

PROFITEERING IN THE MOVIES.

A downtown movie theater recently charged 55 sents admission for the following program: a very that the people speak through representatives. The ordinary farce, a series of news pictures, a series some one whose sense of humor had evidently been has been given only to the republic to establish thoroughly extracted, and a society melodrama with a fairly popular star. In this, the main fea ture, a considerable part of the time was given to enabling the audience to ponder over the subtitles, either on the theory that they read English with military training has yet received was accorded by difficulty or that the subtitles were so good they could be reread several times with pleasure.

The result was a very long and very dull entertainment at a high price. This is not the policy on which the movies built up their prosperity. At the beginning 10 cents was the admission price. No one imagined that movie and the certainty that it will give Americans of the patrons went to a theater to read bad jokes. They future better bodies and more robust health than the could read them for a penny in newspapers and generations which in the past have grown to manin some newspapers THE TRIBUNE for instance they could read good ones. Movie managers assumed the public wanted pictures of action and they were right. Also they assumed that patronre, downtown, at least, was made up of people who wanted to see something worth while in a easonably short time and get out. Again, we are ure, they were right.

But the recent tendency has been to give less it quality, more in time and to boost prices until hey are in sight of the regular theater tariff, Padding and profiteering are not going to pay in

IN HOCK SIGNO.

In spite of the increased cost of everything you still can get a lot of politics in Chicago for 6 cents. If 6 cents is paid to a street car conductor an investment is made in an issue. For some curious reason 74 cents invested on the elevated does not seem to get such quick returns in politics. Probably because the plain people are not supposed to use the elevated. To us that supposition is wholly fallacious

We are all for the 5 cent fare. The nickel was made for two purposes, street cars and movies, but the movies will not have anything to do with it any more, and since the street cars have spurned it it is so much junk. Hence an intense desire to return to the 5 cents of our forefathers.

Mr. Thompson and Mr. Lundin believe that they can make the nickel do its old work and we are is that it may take three or four more reëlections of Mr. Thempson, which would be a long time to listen to a horn, however well played.

We are all the more in favor of getting back the nickel because street car fares represent an nequitable form of taxation. In 1918 the city's hare of the street ratiway profits was $383,215. Last year, with increased fares, it was $1,448,847. This was an additional city tax of over $1,000,000 levied on the people who ride in street cars.

The theory upon which this tax is collected i that it represents the contribution of the street car user to the eventual improvement of street car service by the construction of a subway. The city is not justified in making money out of the people who use street cars. They are entitled to the service and not the city to the money.

Figures are not always interesting, but these street car figures are. The city has collected from the construction of a subway to allow the people to ride in comfort and to give them quick service. Has the city the $25,311,000? It has not. It has spent it, mostly for current expenses. The city holds its own paper in place of the money, in tax warrants, interim receipts for tax warrants, and city bonds and some Liberty bonds. If the city bonds and the Liberty bonds are kept in the traction fund they will be available some day as cash, but the remainder is gone where the woodbine able than the answer whose pennies formed it will dig again to replace

The subway has been hocked. If there were course, the answer to such a query is in strict natural business development about the city hall accuracy: No one man, no one group of men, made there would be nothing in the neighborhood but ting back to the once competent nickel, we can see use it.

GETTING A VOTE ON UNIVERSAL TRAINING. It is admitted that there is no chance for universal training in the house of representatives, to Senator Wadsworth, chairman of the military affairs committee, and that is a good thing.

It will expose the fraud of the opposition and reveal to the country just what the weak, inequitation of the rôle of naval power in their imperial ble, and expensive substitute military policy

To all Americans of common fairness Senator But if the British may hang laurels on the tomb Hitchcock, in opposition, must seem unjust. He ent. George of the A. E. F., who did it once and went to Sedan, may do it again if the country gets into trouble because it has no army.

The nation which put him against unnecessary dangers and unnecessary losses wants to continue

THIS REPUBLIC OF OURS. [Kewanee Daily Star Courier.]

A great deal of loose talk would be avoided if th little book, "Back to the Republic," could be read by every man and woman in the United States. This is a book that defines very clearly what kind of government it is for which the constitution provide warns against the pitfalls and danger of experi-

Mahan was a founding of this republic, we find no country to which warning, don't you think it would be better to the historian can point and truthfully say, "This was government that worked well."

This is not an autocracy, deriving authority through heredity, nor is it a democracy deriving authority through clamor and impulse. There is a republic, the golden mean of government, in which the administration of justice is in accord with fixed principles and established evidence. The essence of a republic f autocracies of the world have been failures and the of alleged jokes culled from the American press by democracies of the world have all been failures. It

MR. HOOVER'S weakness as a candidate is that he is too international, too solar-system-wide, too cosmic. In its experience, the present generation probably will not know a time when there will be reichstag, they would have missed the more need of nationalism, of intensive interest in one's own affairs as a nation. In the recognition of that fact lies Gen. Wood's strength, which ought to grow steadily. Those who say, "We for them. Spring Occasion For Men and Young Men

THE authority which this event commands, in the regard of the men of Chicago, increases with the years. Never has it been so keenly related to the affairs of thoughtful men as it is this season of 1920.

For as the selection of clothes, shoes, hats, shirts and haberdashery has become increasingly a matter of serious concern, men are turning in ever larger numbers to this Men's Store and its known standards.

The Spring Occasion of 1920, then, is more than an exposition of the new spring and summer styles. It is as well an exposition of values. For here quality, which is the true foundation of economy, is inherent not merely in the fabrics themselves, but in the patterns, the colorings, the work-

Stevens' Wool Jersey Suits Ideal for the College Girl $25.00-$35.00-$45.00

THE school girl's life—an intensely active one—requires a suit that will "stand up" under the most vigorous tests of wear, yet look trim for every occasion - requirements ideally met in wool jersey suits.

Wool Jersey Suits are suitable for Traveling, Campus wear Automobiling, Sports wear and General wear.

To Prove That Every School Girl Should Have at Least One Wool Jersey Suit: They will not wrinkle or muss.

They do not "shine." They are all-day and every-day suits. They wear longer than almost any other type of suit.

They are always ready for service. They are sponsored by Fashion and Good Taste.

They possess the distinction of tai-

They are becoming to nearly every type of girl. They can be packed tightly in a traveling bag and when taken out be as trim

They are the most economical gar-ments obtainable today

Choice of Navy, Brown, Tan, Copenhagen and Heather Mixtures, Green, Blue, Brown or Oxford. Sizes 12 to 20 years.

as He Says Good-By Two thousand persons crowded De Paul auditorium last night and said good-by to the Very Rev. F. X. Mo-Cabe, who will leave St. Vincent's parish on Friday. Father McCabe has been pastor there for nine years and head of De Paul university. He leaves to become pastor of a church in Kansas City.

Judge Denis E. Sullivan presided and presented the priest with a purse of $1,000, saying there would be $500 more for him before Friday. George E. Gorman, representing the committee of 190 for an Irish republic, presented Father McCabe with a gold watch.

Father McCabe was overcome at first, but presently he had his well wishers laughing. He told how, some years ago, when the university was in t, he borrowed $100,000 in francs. "I waited to repay that debt until the market in francs fell," he said. "I paid the debt, with interest, for $35,000 American money. No, I'm not above making a penny for the church. Protestantism Drops to Minimum Gain

New York, April 6.-The smallest in rease in Protestant membership in thirty years is recorded for 1919 in statistics compiled by Dr. H. K. Carroll, who prepared the first official censu of religions, and made public tonight by The Christian Herald. The increase for 1919 was only 56,000, as com pared with the average increase for the ten years previous of 771,947. The slump started, he said, in 1918, which showed an increase of only 185, 000 members.

STOCKS ADVANCE: CHICAGO . STOCK . TRANSACTIONS Trade was of moderate proportions yesterday, with the trend of the market lower. Stewart-Warner led in activity, declining but recovering most of the loss. The question of dividends will come up on April 20. Libby was fairly active and firm. Union Carbide declined after an advance, but recovered at the close. Armour & Co. preferred was fairly active, showing an advance and closing at the high mark. Armour Leather, and Swift International, and National Leather were irregular and closed weak. Montgomery Ward, Wilson, and the more
